TALON '66

Crescenta Valley High School
La Crescenta, California

In Dedication . . .

Myrtle
Vogler

To one who has served as faithfully as girls' custodian during the past sixteen years, we dedicate, as a token of our appreciation, the 1966 Talon—in hopes that her memories of Crescenta Valley will be only pleasant ones.

Fall Cabinet

Mike Lester
ASB President

Mr. Douglas Carter
Cabinet Adviser

Under the leadership of President Michel Lester, Fall Semester Cabinet has brought a great many innovations to Crescenta Valley this year. In the first month, the "C" was completed on the side of Mt. Lukens, and the new legislature of Student Congress (the Senate) was put into effect. The purpose of the Senate was to organize an elected body of ASB officers that would hold Cabinet decisions in check and, at the same time, propose new legislation for Student Government. Also, to aid the individual Cabinet members in their programs, special committees were established and put to work immediately—Assemblies, Publicity, Fine Arts, and Homecoming. On November 5, Cabinet sponsored the biggest and best Homecoming in CV's history. After the game, two live bands played for students and alumni, as the Homecoming Queen and her Court reigned over the evening's events.

Graduation, 1966

In scholarship these two girls head the list for the Class of 1966. The Class Valedictorian is Elaine Hoaglund, and the Salutatorian is Diane Dressel.

Class Competition Day

Competition Day was an innovation for CV. Held in February, the activities brought interest in the pie-eating contest, the oratory contest and other events. Lee Shatsnider, sophomore, upper left, was the winning orator. Alan Watson, upper right, was the winner of the pie-eating contest. His partner was Jeff Ball, while Gary Bayless, below, was a strong contender.

The three Homeroom Forums during First Semester reviewed the accomplishments of Fall Cabinet. They were highlighted by the discussion of the CV on the hill and the speeches of the candidates for Spring Cabinet.

Held during Administrative Period for any students who wished to attend, they were led by Mike Lester, Louis Murray, and Billie Barry.

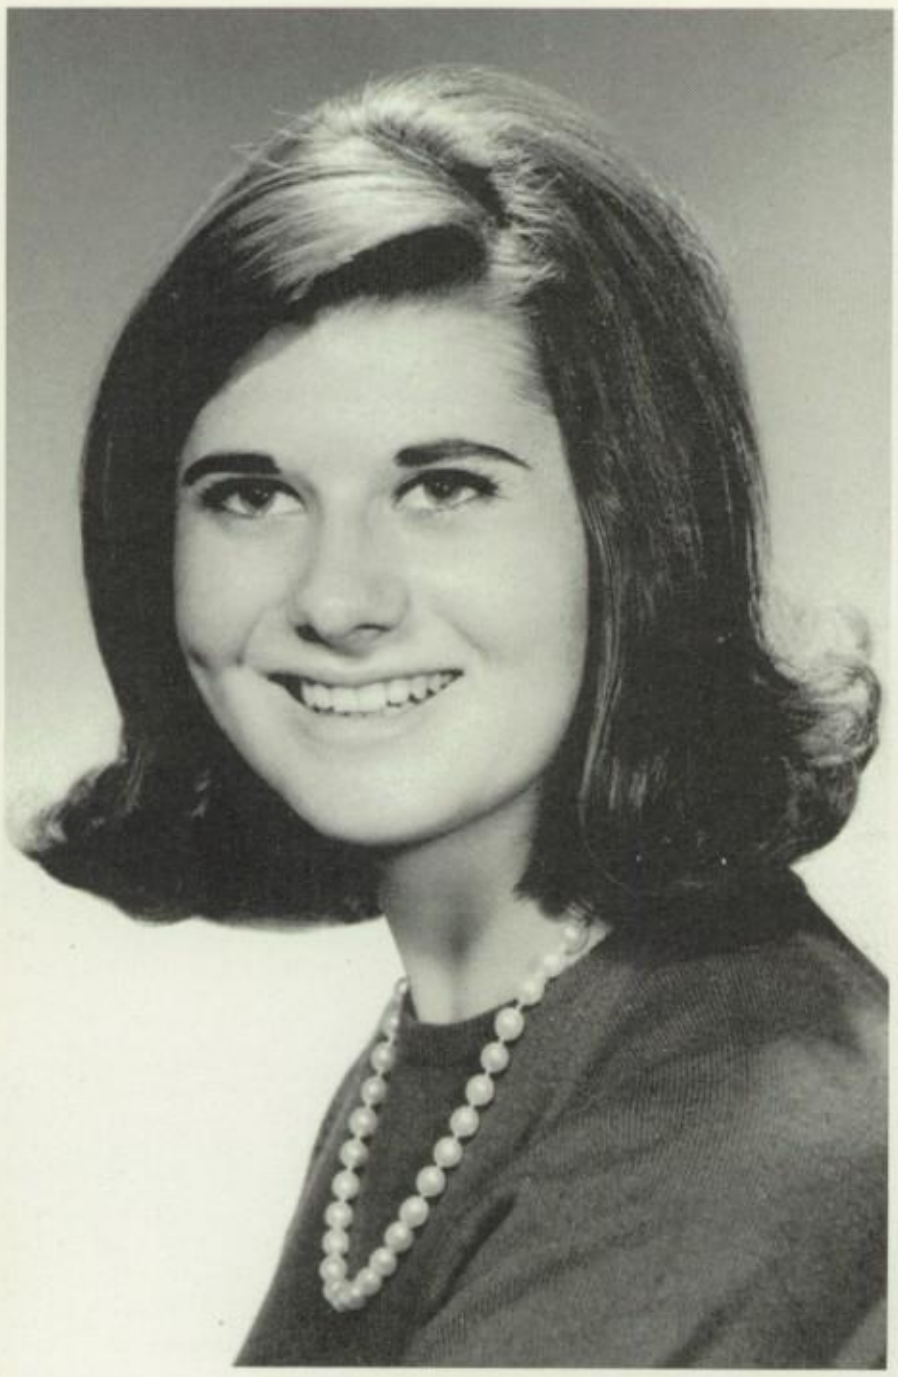
Foreign Exchange Students



Mirella Marziali, one of our foreign exchange students, came to us from Naples, Italy. Her courses include government, modern literature, physical education, Spring Cabinet, art, and bookkeeping.

"I like staying in California and I am really glad that I spent this year in our school. I found the kids friendly and nice to me and this is one of the things I will never forget."

Reinhart Engelein, our foreign exchange student from Germany, lives in a small town near Dusseldorf on a farm for experiments with modern machines. He is the only boy in his family but has three younger sisters. His classes at CV include American government, English Literature, Principles of Mathematics, French 7-8, Physical Education, and typing, a class that is not offered at German high schools. He was able to participate as a voting member in the fall semester cabinet. Reinhart is staying with the Rowe family, having Tom, senior at CV, and Sharon, 8th grader at Clark Junior High School, as his temporary brother and sister. He thanks students, teachers, and administrators for all the friendliness and the help they have given him.

AFS

Deborah Guillemin, one of the American Field Service foreign exchange students from CV for 1965-66, was sent first to the island of Kovinth, where she studied Danish for six weeks.

Arriving in Sevel, Denmark, in early August, she has been living with Dr. and Mrs. Alex Ravenfeld and their family, consisting of five children, the oldest being Debby's age.

In school, Debby takes English, French, Danish, physics, ancient culture, world history, literature, and Danish religion.

Debby will be returning to La Cresenta in July, 1966.

Joanna Hays was sent to Trikala, Greece, last summer through the Americans Abroad Program of the American Field Service. She lived with her Greek father and mother, three brothers, and three sisters. Her family owned and operated three candy stores. While visiting another sister in Athens, she was present during the political riots. Joanna found Greek life very different and exciting and is very anxious to return for another visit.

HOME ECONOMICS

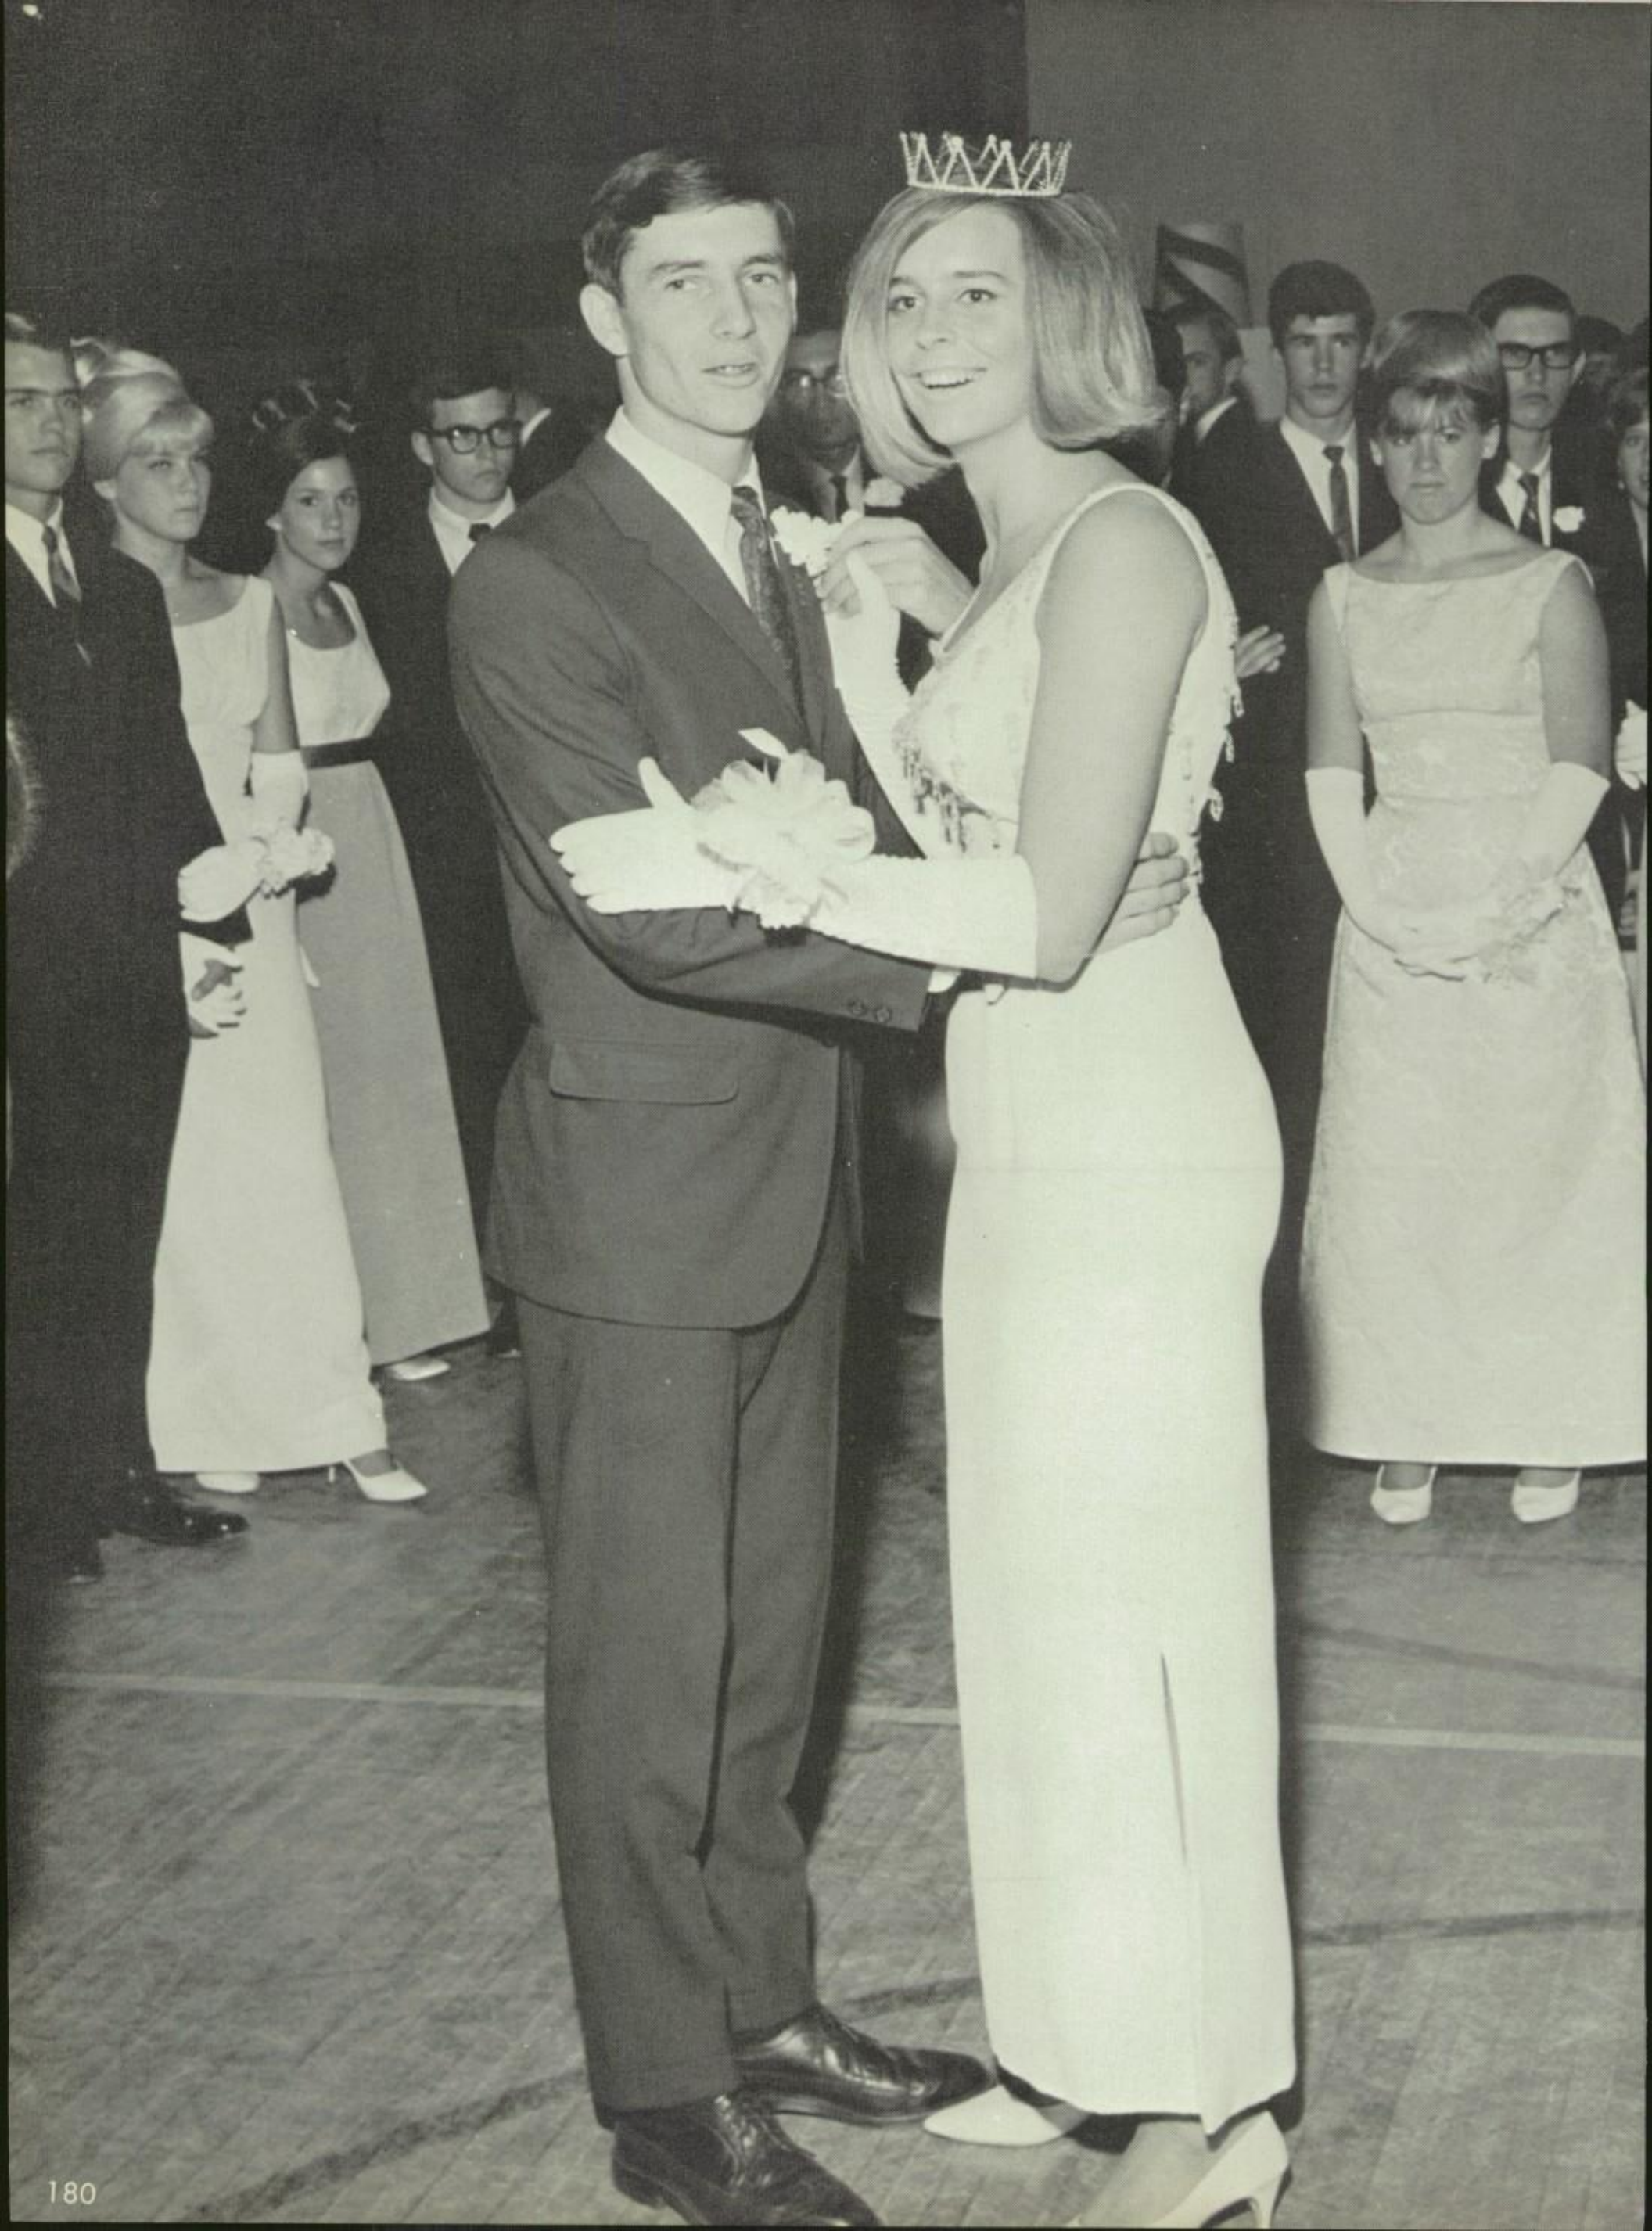
Crescenta Valley's entrants in the Teen Cuisine Contest this year were Linda McCreary, Nancy Halsey and Sue Jones.



60-70 Per Club and Gregg Award Winners

The 60-70 Per Club is a campus organization comprised of students who have passed a series of typing tests calling for both speed and accuracy. With these club members are shown the Gregg Award Winners. These outstanding business students are Bonnie Mitterholzer, Cheryl Hartman, Marilyn Mabery, Gay Borst, and Paula Golsh. Paula and Bonnie have made the 60-70 Per Club, and Gay, Cheryl, Marilyn and Bonnie are Gregg Award Winners. Jo Ann Thompson is also a member of the 60-70 Per Club but is not pictured.

Art Scholarship Winners

The Art Scholarship Winners are Bruce Morrow, Robin Kleges, Carl Baalbergen and Teri Maisterra. Bruce, Robin and Teri were given tuition-free scholarships for Saturday morning classes at Chouinard Art School. Carl was selected for a ten-week scholarship at the Art Center School.

Heading the service activites of the Junior Red Cross are President Linda Lozano, Secretary, Cindy Nielson, Advisor, Miss Aitchison, Treasurer, Jan Decker, and Vice-President Kathy Johnson. Mr. Adison, Key Club advisor, and the boys' service club aided in the annual drive.

Junior Red Cross

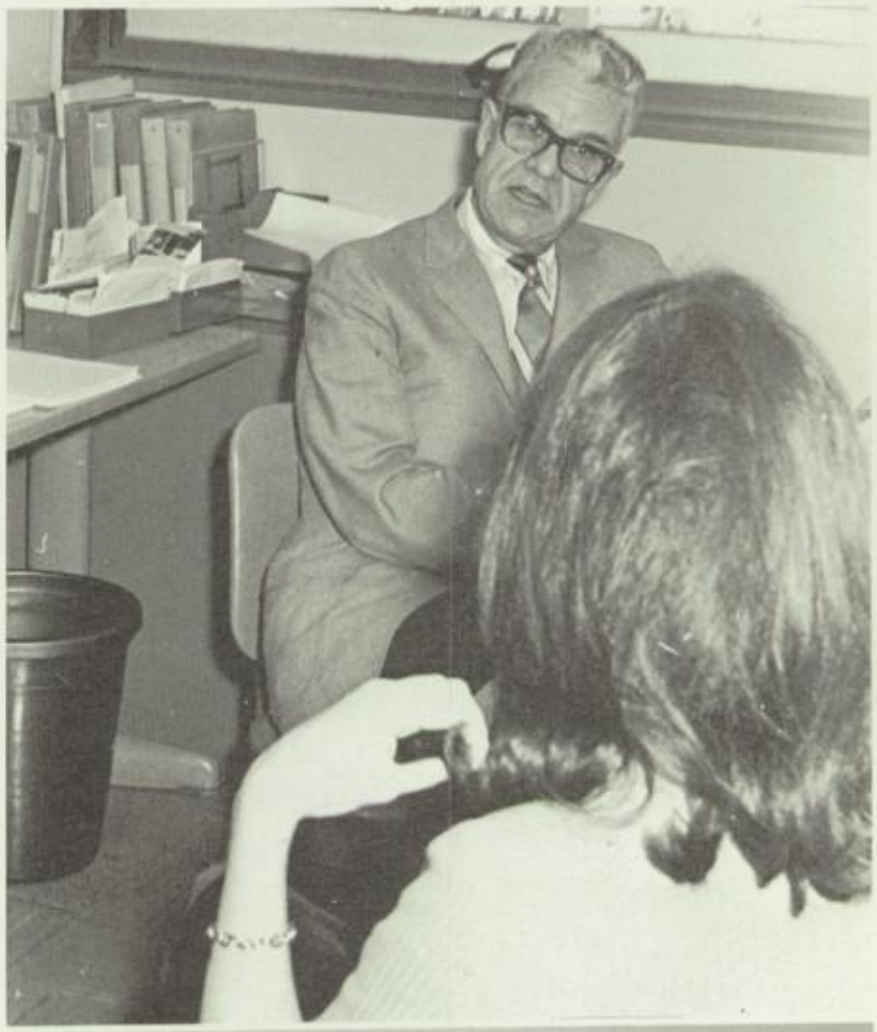
"These new Playtex levis have four-way stretch!" (Won't ride up either.)

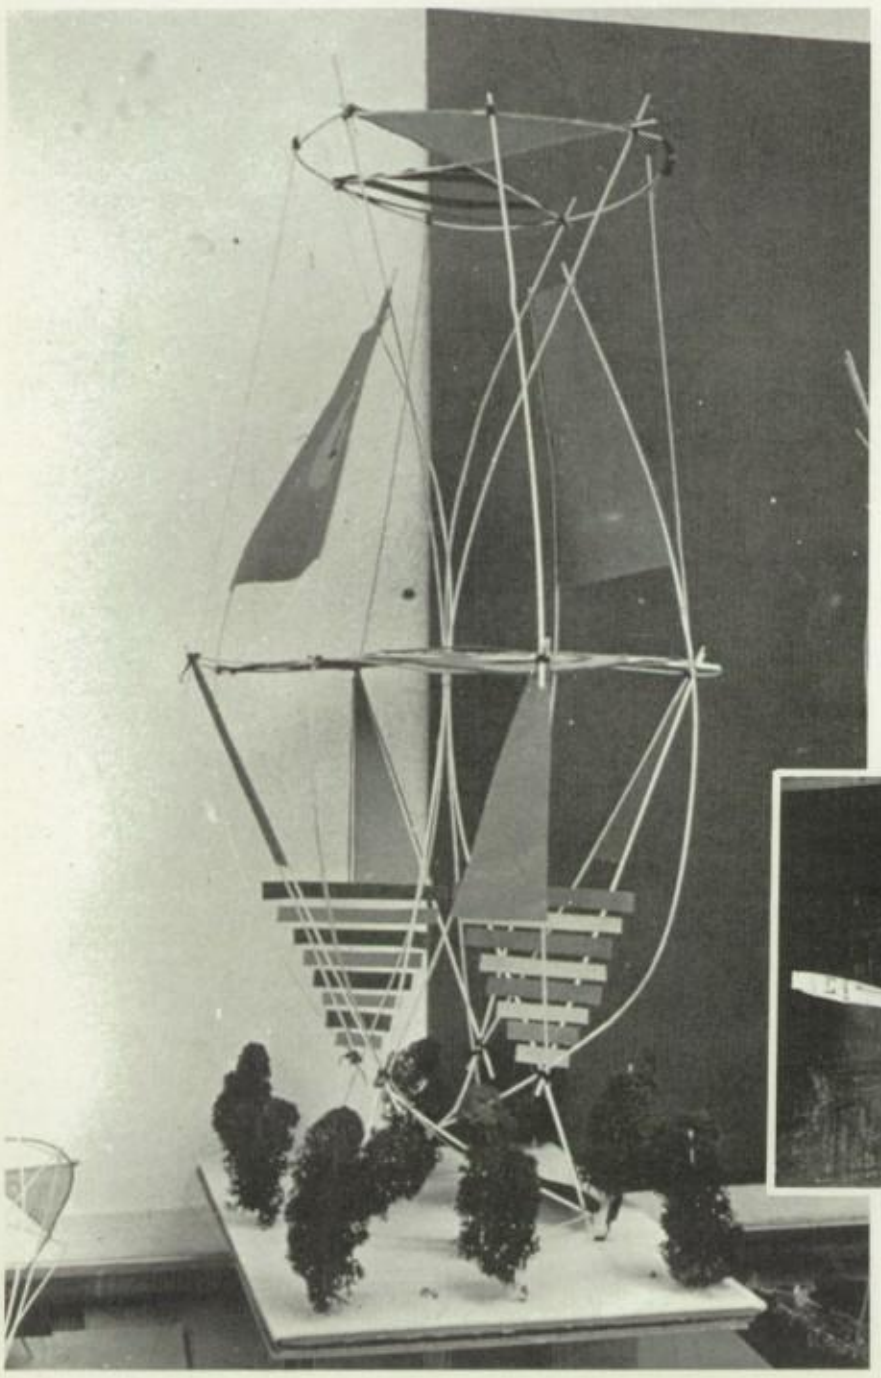
"But you know you want to take advanced calculus!"

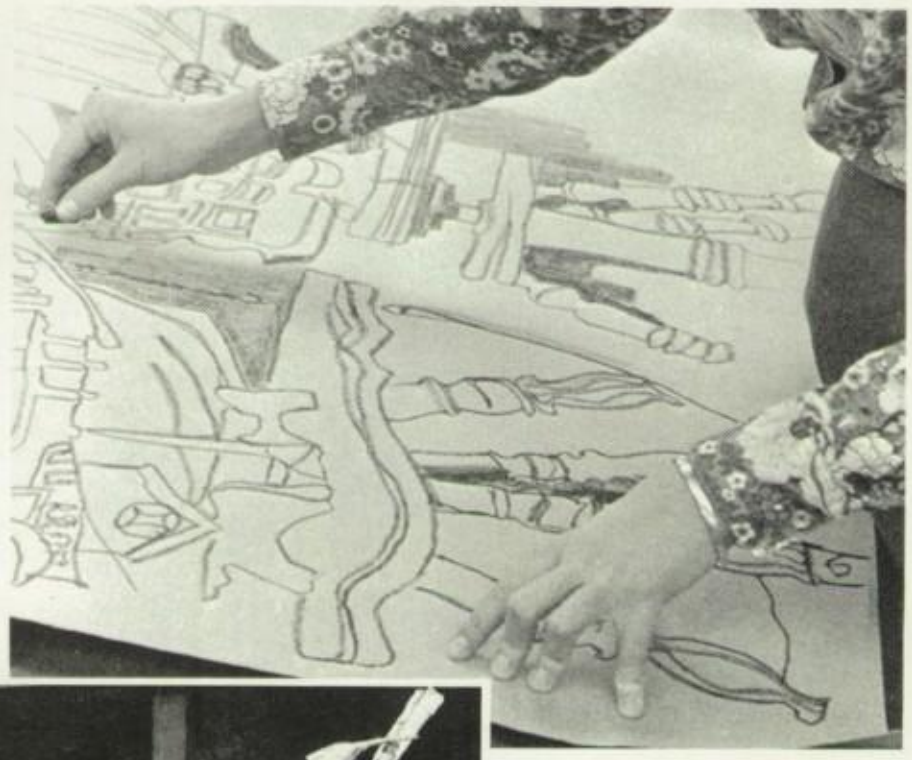


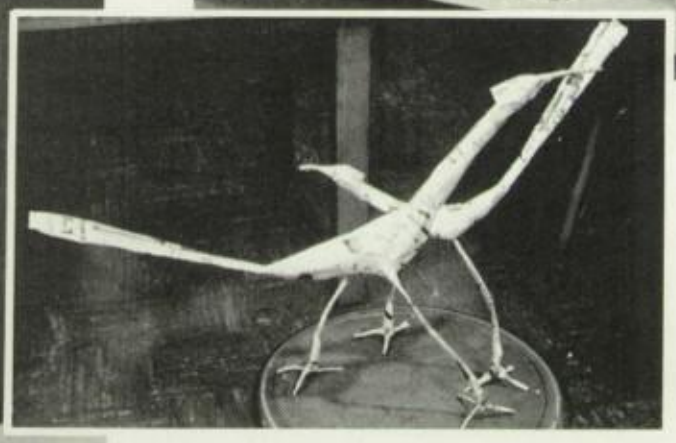
"I saw you pilfer my hypodermic needle!"

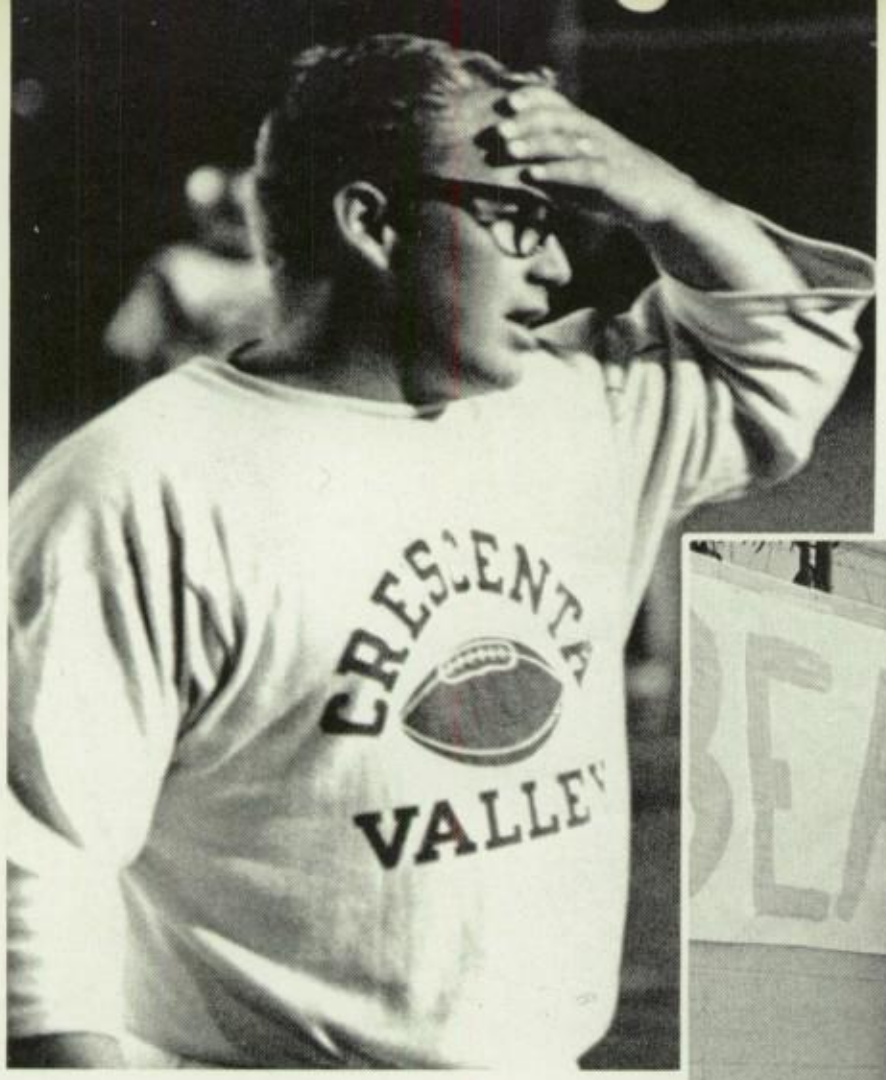
"The sky is falling!" cried Chicken Little.

CV Art









The Talon Staff wishes to express its thankfulness to many helpful people but particularly to Steven's Photography; Mr. Frank Reuss of the CV Photography Department; and to Mike Taylor, Class of 1965, who designed the cover for this book.
